

GASATHJ

Generative Art Science and Technology hard Journal

GASATHJ, Generative Art, Science and Technology hard Journal is a new journal in the field of Generative Art. As Generative Art conferences (www.generativeart.com), it involves different disciplines and it will have multi-media articles in each issue involving different experimentations following generative approaches. The Journal is published by Domus Argenia Publisher in e-book and in paper-book. The e-Journal is a multi-media journal, using new features like videos, music, interactive 3D models, and so on. It will be distributed for free to the Generative Art community and more. The paper-Journal will be printed only in a limited number of copies, following the requests, and it will be sold together with a generative artwork, each one unique and signed by the author. The artworks will be generated images, but also 3D models, music, videos, soft-artworks.
